Yearbook

Prologue

Here — each picture priceless — are our masters, deans, teachers, friends, and events, all individual links in the chain of life we are forging for ourselves. This yearbook will forever remain a carefully guarded symbol of the joyful period of our lives passed in high school. Many times after our departure from C.H.L.S., we shall return in memory to these treasured high school days, and to supplement the memories which might fade, we will forever have this yearbook of our class of '54.

Dedication

We dedicate this book to a man of outstanding leadership, Mr. John J. Sheehan. During the four years now past in time, but not in memories, his firm and friendly hand has rewarded our endeavours and chastised our misdemeanors with justice and understanding. Fully aware that we cannot repay our debt, we make this little tribute in gratitude and respect.

Assistant Headmaster
In charge of the Senior Class

Tribute

Mr. Bramhall, Assistant Head-Master in charge of seniors, has given us invaluable advice and assistance during this last year at Cambridge Latin. He has devoted all his energy to guiding us to the attainment of our goals and ambitions. His counsel and encouragement will not be forgotten by the fortunate students who have received them.

National Honor Society

Last year the Cecil T. Derry Chapter of the National Honor Society was formed at our school. The aims of this national organization are to reward and to promote through recognition the qualities of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service; at C.H.L.S. the candidates for membership are selected on the basic of these attributes. Members sincerely appreciate the honor done them and aspire by greater endeavor to prove their worthiness.

Most Likely to Succeed: Boy
FRANCIS BIRCH

Vivacious Annette Scotti, and Class President Joe Curran won top honors as the two most popular seniors, and we don't see how it could have been otherwise! Adorable Belmira Martins was chosen prettiest girl, and tall Mike Fortman was voted handsomest boy. '54 decided that Nanci Sullivan and Ed Nelson dressed nicest, and Babs Cormier and Diz Clinton could do a two-step best. Basketball co-captain Bette Ann Regan and football captain Tony Messuri easily filled the best athlete spots. It was a unanimous decision that Anne Krikorian and John Serino could say more wrong things at the right time than anyone else! By giving Joe Curran the well-deserved spot of best natured student, '54 presented him with the unique distinction of receiving two titles. In the final categories, Marian Bernardini and Frank Birch were considered most likely to succeed.

On the non-scholastic side, curvacious Marilyn Monroe meandered off with the favorite actress title, and rugged John Wayne was chosen favorite actor. We law abiding seniors picked the Crime-Doesn't-Pay story Dragnet as our favorite television program, but our man Symphony Sid walked off with title to the favorite radio program. Still digging me, Dad?

Proving that we're still young at heart, we elected the all-time favorite Blondie as top comic strip. Baseball is evidently still the national sport since it took top honors in that field. Although English was chosen the favorite subject (Believe it or not!) dancing was picked favorite pastime. And it seems as if '54 likes to spend its pastime dancing to the strains of Stan Kenton's popular orchestra.

It would have been mighty difficult to make better choices. Congratulations to all! Hope the suspense wasn't to-o-o much to bear! But really now, wasn't it worth it??

MARIAN BERNARDINI

Class Will

We, the class of 1954, of the Cambridge High and Latin School, being of, having been of sound bodies and solid minds, do hereby, while we are still able, avow, declare, and do not agree that this is our Last Will and Testament.

It is our sinister hope that these gifts will be received in the same spirit as that in which they are given.

Article I To Mr. Sheehan: a radar system for protection against foreign invasion.

Article II To Mr. Bramhall: Joe Friday to track down his missing Necco Wafers.

Article III To Mr. Higgins: a History class that knows the difference between a "Whig" and a "wig".

Article IV To Miss Schuler: we leave one skeleton, somewhat dead.

Article V To Mr. Kenney: a new French beret. His old one is beginning to look "beat up".

Article VI To Miss Hogan: a stage, a play, and may she do with it just as she pleases.

Article VII To Miss Walsh: a bottle of "Air-Wick" to be used only in emergencies (making hydrogen sulfide).

Article VIII To Miss Dunphy: one typewriter that we guarantee will not walk away during the summer vacation (we bolted it down!).

Article IX To Miss Ayers: one large carton of X, Y's, and Z's (made to order).

Article X To Miss O'Toole: a year's supply of aspirin in case of a sudden epidemic (cause: falling grades).

Article XI To the Junior Girls: the senior boys who didn't graduate.

Article XII To Paul White: John Serino leaves his excellent cheer-leading qualities.

Article XIII To Donald Tank: Joe Curran leaves his flashy bow ties and his matching personality.

Article XIV To Nancy Egan: Pat Santos leaves only her giggles. The laugh is "too, too" to give anyone.

Article XV Johnny Theall willingly bequeaths his dilapidated hockey sticks to Ronnie McGinnity.

Article XVI To the Sophomores: another step up.

Article XVII To the up-coming Seniors we leave the "beautiful new bubblers" on the third floor.

Article XVIII To the Freshman Girls: a supply of assorted pigtails and colored ribbons for the G.A.A. initiation.

Article XIX To Next Year's Class Officers: the permanent? decorations in the Girl's Lunch Room.

Article XX To the Junior Boys: the Senior Chef Class leaves its "sure to kill" recipe for corned beef and cabbage.

Article XXI To the Junior Girls: the Senior girls leave Julius LaRosa and a little "humility".

Article XXII To the Cooks: a year's supply of Mother Fletcher's new thin, thin (where is it?) spaghetti.

Article XXIII To all who wish for a successful future: Marion Bernardini leaves her smile and Francis Birch his knowledge.

Article XXIV Last, but not least: we leave, not our least, but, our best memories.

History

In the year nineteen hundred and fifty approximately 400 terrified youngsters entered the great portals of Cambridge High and Latin School for the first time. As freshmen, we arrived as early as eight o'clock and waited for the bell at ten minutes past eight to welcome us. Upon crossing the threshold we were amazed at the intricacy of the corridors. We hardly believed it would ever be possible to find our way to our various class rooms. In every English class the teacher drew a map of the building which we copied and then memorized. Thank heavens somebody understood freshmen.

Through the kindness of our next door neighbors at Rindge our boys used their gymnasium. On warm, sunny days these fortunate boys strolled leisurely across the library grounds and enjoyed the fresh air. This was not always the case. On dull rainy days they could be seen scampering across the street, dodging raindrops. Gym classes brought many difficulties to the girls. Being late for the next period was usually expected by our teachers. Freshmen are so-o-o slow. Many times while walking through the corridors, we often heard peals of laughter. After investigating, we discovered an upper-classman waving gym briefs in the air. Naturally, the owner never claimed this valuable article of clothing.

The installation of a loud speaker system was a great event at Cambridge Latin. We were constantly interrupted by an unknown voice: Testing 1-2-3. To the delight of the pupils and to the chagrin of our teachers, announcements generally occurred during very important tests.

During our freshman year we were introduced to the school magazine, "The Cambridge Review." Each homeroom selected an agent to collect money for subscriptions. Through this magazine we became acquainted with many upper-classmen. This magazine also informed us of important happenings in the building. Athletics (football, hockey and basketball) were also introduced to us. Although we were green at sports, we knew enough to holler, stamp our feet and throw bits of paper in the air, when Cambridge Latin won the Greater Boston Interscholastic Championship. That is one hockey game we will always remember.

In the spring many of us were allowed to participate in prize examinations in English, Mathematics, Languages and Science. We had to prove that a few freshmen were intelligent. Prizes were awarded at assembly and we were proud of those who had won. Suddenly June was here and we had completed our first year at C.H.L.S.

The followng September we returned with great enthusiasm. We were finally sophomores! We no longer reached school before the first bell, but instead arrived at quarter past eight. We loved to tease the new freshmen, although many of the upper classmen teased us—by mistake!!!

We were deeply saddened by the death of our beloved headmaster, Mr. Downey, who had helped many Cambridge Latin students with their problems.

At Christmastime we looked forward to Miss Hartigan's and Mr. Guest's production of the Tableaux which we had seen in our freshman year. We knew it would be a beautiful program. Another delightful production which we enjoyed was the Music Revue, directed by Mr. Amorouso. Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and even Freshmen participated in this musical. The Music Revue was received so well by the audience, consisting of students, teachers and friends, that a repeat performance was necessary. Those who attended the show for the second time enjoyed it as much as the first.

During our sophomore year the girls' gymnasium was repainted and for many months classes were cancelled. In the Spring try-outs for drill team and cheerleading were held. Since both groups had received new uniforms, and the groups consisted mostly of Juniors and Seniors, the Sophomores were proud to be chosen.

We had now trudged through our second year at Cambridge High and Latin, and were looking forward to a wonderful summer vacation.

When we returned in September we were known as upper-classmen. Although we were eager to discuss our vacation with the friends we had made in the past two years, most of us did not get out of bed on school mornings until eight-fifteen. Therefore, our arrival was abruptly shattered by the ringing of the twenty-five past bell. We laughed at the seniors who dared to wear "white bucks."

In November we became interested in politics and many of our classmates became amateur politicians. Class elections meant a great deal to us. Even Juniors that we had never met approached us with the plea, "please vote for me." Every wall was adorned with colorful posters. After hearing marvelous campaign speeches, we voted for those whom we thought would do their best for the Junior class. Results of the election, given a short while later at assembly, were as follows:

President, James Demos
Vice-President, John Serino
Secretary, Sally Kaufman
Treasurer, Annette Scotti

The Prom Committee was made up of the following five girls:

Jean Abbott
Belmira Martins
Elizabeth Menzies
Jean Rogert
Jacqueline Sheppard

On Thanksgiving morning the C.H.L.S. football team met our rivals from Rindge. This was the biggest game of the season. For the first time in quite a few years Cambridge Latin defeated Rindge. We were extremely proud because many Juniors were on the team and played remarkably well. We certainly enjoyed our turkey and fixings after such a wonderful victory.

Before Christmas we went to the auditorium where we had our first glimpse of our class rings. A committee had been chosen at the beginning of the year to select the design. Having ordered our class rings, we waited to receive them — but not patiently. When they finally arrived we wore them with great pride.

Many Junior girls were fortunate enough to be invited to join the K.B., an honor group for Junior and Senior girls. They helped with the preparations for presenting the movie "Pygmalion." We were glad to attend this movie because the proceeds were for a scholarship fund.

Our Junior Prom was held at the Hotel Commander in May. We were surprised at how different the girls looked in their gowns and how different the boys looked in their tuxedos. Each girl, who attended the prom, received a dance book which the girls on the committee made with their own little hands. Our third year ended with a bang.

The Monday after Labor day we entered the doors which had welcomed us four years before. Being older, we needed more sleep and arrived at twenty-nine past eight. After all, we were now seniors. The "white bucks" which we had frowned upon last year, were now on our feet. We even had enough nerve to wear knee-socks. Some of the boys also wore "white bucks". But as far as we know, none of them resorted to knee-socks.

Our class elections were held early in the fall after a great deal of campaigning. The results were announced in the auditorium.

President, Joseph Curran
Vice-President, John Serino
Secretary, Jacqueline Sheppard
Treasurer, Whitfield Layne

The Reception Committee consisted of:

Jean Abbott
Stella Christopher
Mary Marra
Patricia Santos
Gertrude Urling

Because we were seniors we had many assemblies conducted by the president. At these assemblies we discussed class pictures, yearbooks, caps and gowns, and of course our coming graduation.

On Thanksgiving night the senior class presented a yearbook dance in the girls' lunchroom. It was a great success. Hundreds and hundreds of teen-agers poured into the lunchroom. We were very grateful that so many people came because it lowered the cost of our yearbooks.

When we received our proofs, we immediately brought them to school. We wanted our friends to help us choose the best pose. Finally, after we brought the finished pictures to school, oohs and aahs could be heard floating along the third floor. Comments like, "where's my picture?" and "you owe me a picture," drifted through the lunchrooms, the stairways and the corridors.

Seventeen Seniors were chosen for the National Honor Society. This honor group had been formed last year for the first time. We were very proud of our classmates.

On February the twelfth the K. B. presented its annual informal at the Riverside Boat Club. For many weeks we read the various posters which informed us of the great valentine dance. At a special assembly, advertising the dance, Freddie Sateriale played the piano and Don Alesso played the guitar. Joe Sheehan, a featured singer with Freddie's orchestra, also entertained us. We are glad to report it was a great success.

We are now looking forward to Career Day which will take place in March. This whole day is set aside to help juniors and seniors decide upon their future careers. Informal lectures, question and answer periods, and booklets are all part of this program.

In May we will attend the Senior Reception, our last high-school dance. By the time we have autographed yearbooks and distributed numerous wallet size pictures, graduation will be here. We leave this great institution of learning with heavy hearts and sincere thanks to the faculty for their guidance in the past four years. We, the class of nineteen fifty-four, hope to achieve the standards set forth by the former graduates of Cambridge High and Latin in reaching our goal for a successful future.

1974 WHO'S WHO IN— THE ARMED SERVICES

Uncle Sam's top recruiters for this year are Joe Delaney, Allan Lambert, and Kevin Fitzgerald. Among their willing recruits are Bill Haggerty, Frank Fournier, Jimmy Kelley, Jimmy Callahan, Richie Yanus, Don Walsh, and Henry Murphy. Their very able leader will be the six star general, Paul Hartford.

ART

The Museum of Fine Arts today announced that it has acquired two new paintings: Modern Masterpiece by Manuela Yona, and Winter Delight by Joanelle Wright. These paintings were presented to the Museum by Mrs. Hilda Bailey Van-Wealthy, wife of the oil millionaire, and Mrs. Ann Coughlan Van-Rich, wife of the coffee king.

THE DOMESTIC WORLD

Every morning at 11:00, Dotty Paone can be found sitting in front of her Bud Trodden T.V. set with the rest of the neighborhood housewives, Mary Hanzis, Ruth Watson, Blanche Luchinskis, Mary Murphy, and Sandra Daum. The program captivating them is none other than "Chef's Holiday", the radio-TV broadcast which can be heard and seen daily, sponsored by Jean Abbott's Slick Peanut Butter. Head chef, John Mackey; his very unaccomplished assistants, Charlie Buchanan, Paul Vears, Ray Mills, Pete Parise, Billy Troy, Dave Nevins, Bob O'Sullivan, and Denis Lynch, comprise the staff of this extremely gooey show. During intermissions, Dotty McLeod can be seen busily conferring with Jackie Sheppard, who's busy raising her own hockey squad, viewers Jean Landrigan and Eleanor Arnold are busily discussing the possibilities of the new book, "How to Keep Him Happy," the latest work penned by the expert on home life, Jean Rogert.

Among the top contestants for the coming "Mrs. America" contest will be Rose Bellissimo, Madeline Carroll, Barbara McSweeney, Mary Burke, Martha Crowley, Kathleen Hanlon, Nanci Sullivan, Mary Panselinas, Barbara Lingley, and Lynn Edwards.

Top contestants for the "Mother of the Year" title are Nancy Travers, Kathy Cleary, Lilly Joyce, Beverly Simpson, Mary Rainho, Barbara Bower, Betty Dennehey, Camelia Beckles, Letitia Douglas, and Clara Stewart.

Running in the "Perfect Housewife" field are Eleanor McDermott, Marion Scales, Madaline Walsh, Sheila Villemarie, Mary Lyons, Cathy Cushman, Adele Ciccolo, Barbara DiGiacomo, Eleanor Ranelli, Cynthia Martin, Marion Cooper, and Theresa Othote.

Combining efforts to write a cookbook for this exclusive group are Joan Sugrue, Shirley Bibeau, Rose Giovino, Barbara McLeod, Carol Alexander, Marie Fitzgerald, Annette Souhlaris, Theresa Rogers, Geraldine Hill, Claire Proulx, Ann Smith, Gail Lewis, Barbara Ware, Marilyn Mahoney, and Shirley Campbell. They are basing their book on the new right-side-up cake recipe developed by the Betty Rocker Company. Barbara Hayes, chief consultant for Betty Rocker New Recipes, said today that Joan Ofria developed the new recipe by adding garlic to the old recipe. Joan's aides in this startling new discovery are Terry Banett, Mary Lou McConnell, Joan Hazlett, and Marilyn Miller.

ENTERTAINMENT

The new Latinite Theater was opened recently by the well-known theater magnate, Harry Wilson. Headlining Wilson's newest show, "Harold Howls," will be John Giunta as the frustrated clarinetist who is introduced to fame by the heroine of the show, songstress Arvilla Gaspar. The cast also includes dancer Mary Jane McMahon, singer Claudette Graves, actress Thelma Loconto, and America's top comediennes, Bunny Loebig and Ann Krakorian. The featured song, "The Flirtation Waltz," was written by Audrey Alphen, with assistance from Virginia Sparks, America's most famous female disc-jockey. "Harold Howls" was produced by popular Ron Anderson and directed by the one and only Wes Wadman.

On the T.V. front, producer Robert Spagnuolo is considering a new talent show. His first program will feature Ann Olmstead, clarinet player, Ruth Brawn, baton twirler, accordionist Barbara Lowell, Shakespearian actor, Ed Shannon, and the musical bones-playing specialist, John Serino. The show will be sponsored by the Bermuda Swim Suits Company, which will send over its top models, Larry Clinton and Wayne Williams, to elaborate on the advantages of Bermuda sportswear. Latin cuties who will parade the future fashions are Lorraine Dellanno, Judy Rose, Victoria Marifiote, Charlotte Whitman, Frannie Ruggieri, Angela Mazullo, Sheila Moore, Maureen Corcoran, Mickey Marra, Virginia Martel, Mary Sullivan, Myra Robinson, Barbara Cooper, Barbara Purcell, Elaine Fisher, and Millie Peterson.

The fashion program, "Today's Glad-Rags," is now appearing weekly on Ken Sullivan's station, CHLS-TV. This show features the country's fashion expert, Sally Kaufman, and the latest models from the Lee Parks' Model Agency, Claire Flynn, Belmira Martins, Charlotte Danis, Marilyn Demitro, Mary Correia, and the ever-popular May Bush!

In the ice world, Mr. Timothy Q. Corkery will present the "Ice Latinades of 1974" with his stars, Miss Patricia Grimes and Mr. Ronald Briand. Leading his specialty numbers will be Dotty Carroll and Tommy Haley. Featured as the "Old Smoothies" of the show will be Annette Scotti and Tony Messuri. The comic ballerina of Mr. Corkery's show will be the one and only John J. Dooley. Other laughs will be generated by the "Mad Four," Johnny Theal, Joe Powers, Bill Cronin, and Burt Shoket.

The new motion picture hit, "From Here to Fraternity," has just been released. This stars the number one box office draw, Mike Fortman, and the gorgeous starlets. Judy Saraiva, Carol Forsythe, Dotty Thorpe, and Millie Peterson. The picture, produced by Joan Miller, was directed by Bill Ferguson.

Another new feature has been added to Ralph Stark's "Zoo Parade." Be sure to tune in and see John Walsh and his trained fleas!

EXECUTIVE CIRCLES

The White Collar Association of America held its annual meeting at the Hotel Robert Miley. Chairman Mike Trodden introduced the various speakers: Carol Kalivas, Department Store Buyer; John Melim, Five and Ten Cent Store magnate; William Chopelas and Ada Smith, rival bus company executives; and John Mahoney, owner of the Duick Car Company. Among the guests present were: Patricia Brine and Joan Miller, heads of the Knit-Wits Knitting School; Katherine Monroe, Helen Dolliver, Geraldine Ray, Alice Costa, and Frances Farrara, millinery executives; Grace Turcott, Jean Abbott, Beverly Cabral, Pauline Coleman, and Frances Dobrisky, cosmetic advisors; Frances Vasil, owner of the Break Your Neck Ski Lodge; Barbara Supple, Edith Thomas, and Mary Tramontozzi, owners of the Learn the Wrong Way Secretarial School; Gertie Urling, head of Painful Dental Clinic; and Artie Saulnier, owner of the Fresh Air Health Resort.

The "Medal for Fortitude" was presented to Marie Blessington, the courageous switchboard operator who remained at her post during the terrible locust raid that recently occurred in Texas.

LITERARY FIELDS

MEDICINE

The Kill-Em-Qwik Hospital is now operating under a new medical staff consisting of doctors Virginia Battaglini, Philip Millstein, Michael Rosa, Elizabeth Candow, Robert McDonald, Madge Lewis, and Virginia Finstein. The nursing staff is composed of Connie Barbera, Lorraine Chamberland, Anita Kalt, Frances Lowe, Adelaide Peters, and Joanne Love. The secretarial staff of the hospital consists of Annette Blank, Stephanie Szupel, Fay Wallack, Jean Boucher, Annette Farrare, Anita Leccese, Carol Masci, Eleanor Milligan, and Emerald Steph.

POLITICS

Election results of 1974 have just been announced! Those elected are: President, Thomas McCabe;

Vice-President, Charles Bonina; Secretary of State, John Jankowski; Secretary of Treasury, Marian Bernardini; Secretary of Defense, Leonard Dow; Postmaster-General, James Healy; Attorney General, Jerry Halberstadt; Secretary of Agriculture, Gail Kyett; Secretary of Commerce, Barbara Pierce; Secretary of Interior, Dave Stevens; and Secretary of Labor, Patricia Santos.

Flash!! Alfred Censullo, assistant Secretary of Defense, today declared that there will be no more wars until the next fight.

Secretary to the President, Rosemarie Reminiscenza, and her assistants, Virginia Creati, Irene Crimaldi, Ann DeAngelis, Lorraine Lowe and Laurette Dolliver are off to Florida for a three year vacation.

Office workers in the United States Mint who are striking until they get a raise include Mary Woods, Frances Murrell, Florence DeFrancisco, Barbara Darlington, and Alice Slonina. They'll be sorry!!

F.B.I. chief, Sid "Friday" Saslavsky today announced the smashing of the lolly-pop smuggling ring by Mary "Thursday" Collins. Crime still doesn't pay!!

SCIENCE

Annette Terzian, Private Secretary, announced that her employer, David McLaughlin, President of the Eastinghouse Electric Company, today acquired new members on his staff in an attempt to perfect the typewriter without keys. The famous scientists added are Francis Birch, Charles H. Cooke, Jr., Tsing Yuan. Donald McKinnon, Stella Christopher, Jane Dzedovetz, Sylvia Bossman, and Patrick Higonnet. The secretarial staff assigned to cover the important project are: stenographers, Mary Correiro, Elaine Gordon, Ruth Lavin, Marie O'Brien, and Cathy Christopher. Typing the reports will be Jean Finstein, Carol Drobot, Veronica Mills, Marcia Drector, and Frances Snyder. Making out the payroll for this famous concern are Jacqueline Smith, Josephine Hanafin, Charlotte Lind, Beverly Benthale, and David McGrath. The filing for the company is under the direction of Tootsie Bowles, Irey Edwards, Beverly Hannigan, Frances Seward, and Jacqueline Benson.

Just returning from the first Lunar Expedition of 1974 is Gerry Hebert. On her arrival on Earth, she is greeted by Governor Robert Hutchinson and his staff of secretaries and personal aides: Florence Bogosian, Betty Conlon, Carol Finochetti, Barbara Fletcher, Helen Maloney, Pat O'Hara, and Barbara Wyman.

Her first stop after these ceremonies is the new ultra-modern Cambridge City Hospital with its competent staff headed by such illustrious C.H.L.S. alumni as Dr. Ed Brown, Dr. John Harrison, Dr. John Hurney, Dr. Thomas Magliozzi, and Dr. Karen Groger. This staff of fine doctors has also the finest surgeon in the country, Dr. Marvin Grossman.

Wally Fonseca, pilot of the new atomic jet, and his two airline hostesses, Laura Lebert, and Norma Masse, set a new record today when he flew his plane with one hundred passengers through an air pocket without one single bump!

SPORTS

Bette Regan and Mary McMullen's Ping-Pong School has been established across the street from Joe Power's "Make Yourself a New Man" Gym, which is frequented by such celebrities as Tommy Bergantino, who can usually be found way out in left field with the Red Sox; Joe Wheeler, thirty-sixth assistant coach of the Boston Celtics; Whit Layne, star of the Harlem Globetrotters; Paul Lyons, star of the New York Knicks; Jim Culhane, first line wing for the Boston Bruins; and Kenny D'Arcy and Karl Loges, Olympic track greats.

Ray McClarity received an award from the Boy Scouts of America for being the most worshipped basketball star of 1974. Congratulations, Stretch!

EDUCATION

The annual report of the Theall Co-Ed College has just been published. President John Forrest and Vice-President Frances Naughton have highly praised their faculty: Virginia Potter, Professor of Anthropology; Marie Mahoney, Math Professor; Adrienne Williams, athletic director; Dorothy Soper, head of History Department; Donald Chaulk, Music director; and Richard Vernon, Bill Morrison, and Manuel Madieros, Art Directors. The art award was won by Eileen McAleavey, their English award, by Thomas Considine; and the secretarial award, by Patricia Galvin. Jackie Martus was unanimously voted Campus Queen. Betty Ann McCauley was chosen the prettiest school teacher in the country. Lorraine Walsh, another Theall College girl, was selected from over two million college students to represent the "Perfect College Student" at the annual College Mardi Gras in New York.

And so ends our WHO'S WHO of 1974. All information was compiled from the official files of the Joe Curran Research Laboratories, so you can be assured of its accuracy!!

The Review

First Row: Masse, N., Alderman, C., Kaufman, M., Candow, B., Bernardini, M., Williams, A., Kaufman, S., Korb, C., Carroll, D.

Second Row: LaRiccia, R., Flamand, J., Terzian, A., Travers, L., Rowell, P., Caruso, J., Farrara, F., Campbell, M., Yona, M., Cabral, B., Brine, P., Darlington, B., Kyett, G., Christopher, S., McMahon, M., McLaughlin, D.

In the sixty-ninth year of its publication, the Review was again very successful. The staff was unusually talented this year. The Spotlight, compiled by Assistant Editor Liz Menzies and Stella Christopher, was the most popular column. Carol Alderman, Jocelyn Flamand, and Carol Korb gathered the Freshman Notes. John Serino, assisted by Whit Layne, basketball, and Frank Birch, track, reported the latest in sports. Dave "Dad" McLaughlin and Mary Jane Campbell commented on current musical hits. Club Notes in various languages were edited by Charles Cooke. Nanci Sullivan, with artists Sally Kaufman and Manuela Yona, kept the girls in the most modern fashions. Nanci and Jack Jankowski also compiled the Alumni Notes. Marian Bernardini, occasionally assisted by photographer Jerry Halberstadt wrote the Editorials. Pat Alward, Marcia Kaufman, Pat Higonnet, and Helen Philbrick covered the numerous Press Conferences. Cartoonist Bill Morrison's pictures made a big hit. David Kingsbury, Judy Rose, and Manuel Medeiros did the remaining art work. Typing was done by Bev Cabral, Dotty Carroll, Franny Ferrara, Mary Jane McMahon, Dotty Paone, Rosemarie Riminiscenza, and Rose LaRiccia. Stella Christopher, Gail Kyett, Norma Masse, Lillian Travers, and Adrienne Williams handled the business details admirably.

The whole Review staff wishes to express its thanks to Miss Kelley, Mr. Higgins, and Mr. Santoro, its advisors, for helping to make the Review such a success this year.

K. B.

Under the direction of Miss Crowley and Miss McCabe, and its two officers, Marion Bernardini, President, and Frances Naughton, Secretary-Treasurer, the K. B. had a very fine year.

Early in the year many of the girls assisted the Red Cross on the Bloodmobile. These girls gladly did canteen and desk work.

Just before Christmas the girls visited Bedford Veterans' Hospital to do a splendid job decorating the auditorium there.

The K. B. Valentine Informal was held at the Riverside Boat Club. Fred Sateriale's orchestra, singer Joe Sheehan, and our own Amelia Sears entertained a large and happy audience.

More events are planned for the rest of the year.

The Dramatic Club

First Row: Doherty, N., Harland, P., Yona, M., Ferguson, W., Temple, J., Magliozzi, L.
Second Row: Fortman, C., Stevens, D., Solomons, G.

Under the capable direction of Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest the forty-seven members of the Dramatic Club have had a busy and exciting year. In October the first meeting was held and officers elected. They are: President, William Ferguson; Vice-President, Manuela Yona; Treasurer, Joan Temple; Secretary, Patricia Harland; and Executive Board, David Stevens, Gustave Solomon, Nancy Doherty, Lucille Magliozzi and Clem Fortman.

In connection with United Nations Day the club presented the documentary drama, "All the World's a Stage". In December Miss Hartigan's Christmas Pageant again thrilled all the audience with the beauty of the Nativity. Two plays, "Midnight Fantasy" and "The Lawyer from Springfield," were given for the P.T.A. Three plays, "Quiet Please," "The Charm Racket," and "Doctor Faustus" were presented in "Curtain Time" and the latter was given in the Massachusetts Drama Festival in March. During Drama Day at Emerson the club presented "The Shooting of Dan McGrue."

The members all wish to thank Miss Hartigan and Mr. Guest for their invaluble aid and guidance.

Girls' Athletic Association

Second Row: Miss Hyde, Advisor, Rogert, J., Crockett, G., Petralia, N., Cronin, J., Miss George, Advisor.

The first party of the year given by the G.A.A. was the freshman initiation party. Miss Smith honored the party by appearing and presenting the freshman girls with their membership pins. A fine afternoon of entertainment and refreshments was enjoyed by this new group of girls.

In September the G.A.A. formal was held at the Hotel Commander. Bob Norris and his orchestra provided a wonderful evening of music. Barbara Dawda and William Megavich were chosen king and queen of the formal.

In December the G.A.A. members attended a Christmas party in the girls' gym. The officers would like to thank Mr. William Linskey for playing the part of Santa Claus. A very colorful tap dance was presented by a group of freshman girls. We would like to thank Miss Hyde and Miss George for coaching these talented girls.

On February 29, over ninety members were present at the roller skating party, which was held at the Wal-lex Rollerway in Waltham.

A record hop was held in the girls' gym on March 12. The latest records presented a fine evening of music for over two hundred teen-agers. The officers would like to extend their thanks to the girls who helped with the selection of records.

The bowling party will be held early in April. We hope this party will be a success also. The annual banquet will come in May, then many of the senior girls will receive their awards for four years in sports.

The officers would like to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to Miss Hyde and Miss George for their guidance and help during the past year.

Glee Club

Fifth Row: McMahon, E., Delaney, J., Iannazzi, R., Sparages, A., Wells, J., Fortman, C., Kapsembelis, C., Hurney, J., Smith, J., Junken, J., Dehmer, F. Stuck, M., Sears, R., Chaulk, D.

This group, the most selective in the school, is our representative at public performances.

The annual Hit Parade Assembly, a presentation by the combined glee clubs and soloists, was a great success. Although it is given only once a year, it is very popular. A concert was given by the glee clubs and the band. Later the Senior Glee Club performed at a meeting of the P.T.A.

The Senior Glee Club added greatly to the art and solemnity of the Armistice Day program. The glee club provided a beautiful musical background to the lovely tableaux in the Christmas Pageant. For three hours before the Christmas holiday, the glee clubs strolled through the corridors entertaining the school with carols.

In May the Senior Glee Club will compete in the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival with great chances of success; last year we got a Class A rating.

All the members of the club wish to thank Mr. Amoruso, the conductor, and Rosalie Castle, the accompanist.

Arvilla Gaspa

Junior Red Cross

First Row: Connie Layne, Mary Murphy, Miss Ward, Annette Scotti, Adrienne Williams, Beverly Simpson, and Laura Bulkowski.
Second Row: Mary Woods, Mary O'Connor, Marie Blessington, Sheila Moore, Charlotte Lind, Roberta Jack, Dorothy Medieros, and Annette Terzian.
Third Row: Maureen Walsh, Jackie Benson, Barbara Ware, Joan Clark.

Third Row: Medeiros, M., Halberstadt, J., Wilkin, B., Lida, F.

Chess Club

With an experienced team and great determination the Chess Club appears to be heading for its first championship in several years. This great success is due in large measure to the officers of the club. They are: President, Jerome Halberstadt; Vice-President, Leo Lyons; Secretary, Peter Firchow; and Treasurer, Patrick Higonnet. Other leading players include: Francis Birch, Donald Southall, Charles Cooke, Brian Wilkin, and our best, Fernando Lida.

PATRICK HIGONNET

Projection Club

The Projection Club under the capable supervision of Mr. H. Clayton Haley adds an up-to-date supplement to daily school life with audio-visual equipment. It is estimated that 140,000 pupils saw the 800 films shown by the members. The members also gave unstintingly of their time to operate tape and wire recorders and record players in cooperation with various activities.

DONALD MACKINNON

The French Club

In October the first meeting was held and the following officers elected: President, Eleanor Turpin; Treasurer, Jerome Halberstadt; Secretary, Audrey Joyce; and Program Director, Virginia Potter. At the second meeting three skits were given by the third year students, and several musical selections by the second year pupils. Many members attended the movie "Little Boy Lost" with Miss Parsons and Miss McCabe. The French Club assisted in the Christmas meeting and its contribution was greatly appreciated. In February the club went to a play at Smith College.

ELEANOR TURPIN

The German Club

At the first meeting the club was organized and the officers elected. They are: President, Karin Groger; Secretary, Jean Rogert; and Treasurer, Donald Tank. At the modern language club's Christmas meeting David Kingsbury read an original essay on Christmas in Germany and the whole club sang "Stille Nacht". Later we heard Blanche Thebom's recording of Mahler's "Lieder eines Fahrender Gesiller". Excerpts from Mark Twain's "The Terrible German Language" were read. Gustav Solomon did a delightful job entertaining with his marionettes. A play with German dialogue is planned for the near future. All the members of the club wish to thank Miss Waite for her advice and counsel.

KARIN GROGER, President

The Italian Club

In September the Italian Club, directed by Miss Hunter, reorganized. At this meeting the present members elected the following officers: President, David Ogden; Secretary-Treasurer, Lucille Magliozzi; and Program Chairman, Richard Joachim. Cynthia Capucci, Jean Chamberland, Geraldine DeNunzio, and Antoinette Evangelista were chosen to serve on the Program Committee. Dues were collected from a regular membership of twenty-seven. At the Christmas meeting of the language clubs the Italian Club contributed two features.

LUCILLE MAGLIOZZI, Secretary

The Spanish Club

The officers are: President, John Dooley; Vice-President, Robert Ianazzi; Secretary, James Jankun; Treasurer, Yvonne Bradbury. The Program Committee consists of: Marcia Andelman, Marcia Kaufman, Marian Bernardini, and Laurence McLaughlin. This year we have had a lot of activity. We have heard songs by Amelia Sears, a short talk on Puerto Rico by James Burneson, and a description of Christmas in the South American countries by Fernando Lida. Later this year we will visit the Fogg Museum and a Spanish restaurant with our advisor, Miss Parsons.

JAMES JANKUN, Secretary

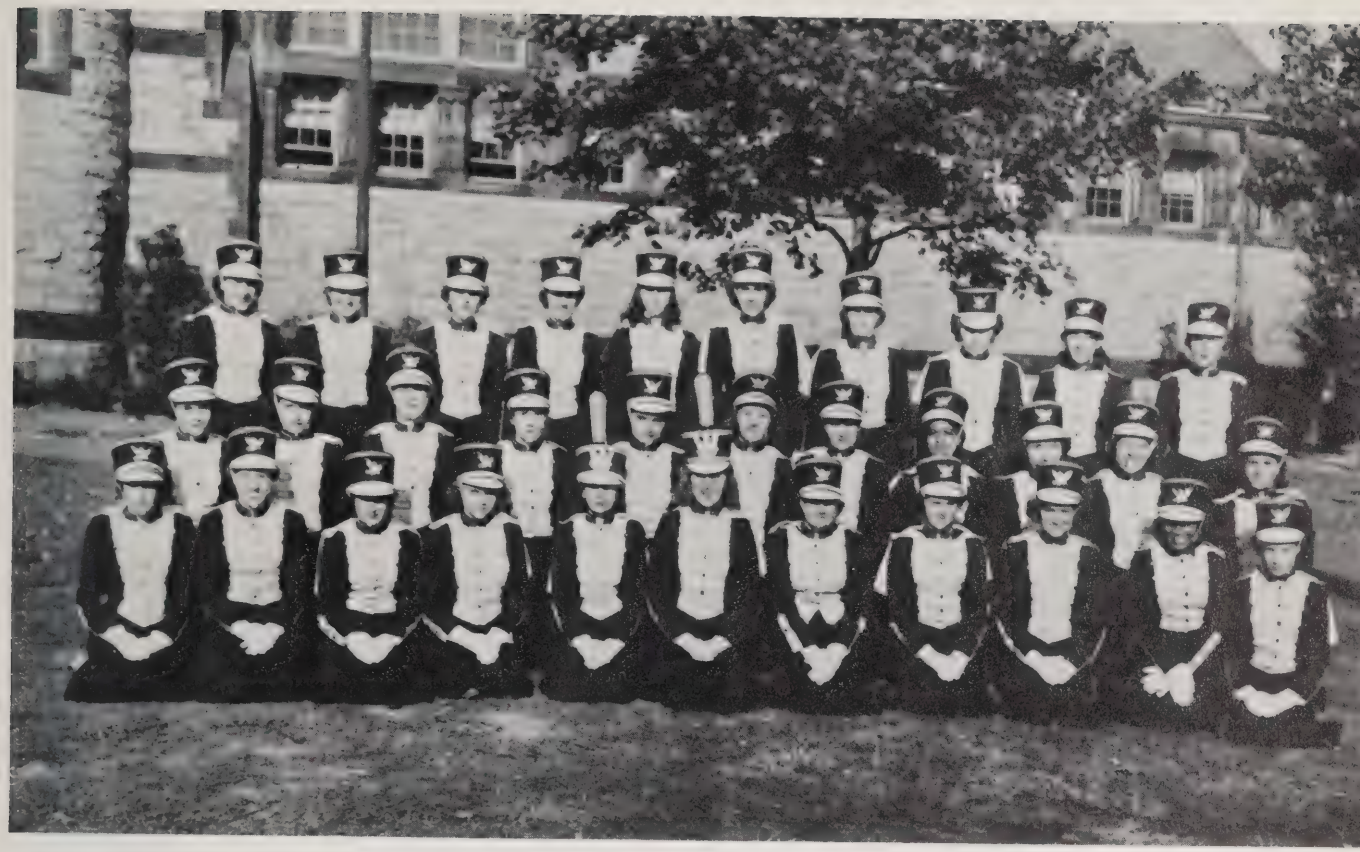
Drill Team



First Row: D. Scott, M. Carrol, J. Cronin, L. Burgess, Capt.- J. Rogert, Capt.- L. Beal, N. Winn, B. Conlon, A. Scotti, P. Collins, K. Wheelock.
Second Row: J. Temple, D. Scaringi, M. Hayes, V. Ugolini, P. Brine, J. Abbott, B. Farr, E. Fisher, A. Savioli, B. Fleet, C. Salvato.
Third Row: G. Hebert, B. Regan, M. Bernardini, M. McMullen, B. Candow, F. Lowe, J. Boudreau, P. Newell, B. Isen, P. Rendall.

A colorful group of girls is the drill team. Jean Rogert and Linda Beal were elected co-captains for '53 and '54. We would like to bring attention to the fact that a remarkable number of senior girls were out for drill this year. We hope this spirit will be carried on in the years to come.

First Row: Lowe, F. Bernardini, M., Carroll, M., McTiernan, D., Junior Varsity Capt., McMullen, M., Senior Varsity Co-Capt., Regan, B., Senior Varsity Co-Capt., Williams, A., Rogert, J.
Second Row: Miss Hyde, Coach, Regan, M., Hector, L., Hichun, J., Jaruis, G., Love, J., Boudreau, J., Johnson, R., Farr, B., Winn, N., Henderson, N., Manager, Miss George, Coach.
Third Row: Savioli, A., Economou, H., Cincotta, M., Healy, M., Buckley, D., Leccese, A. Cronin, L., Cronin, J.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

This year the team has had an almost uniformly victorious record. In all the games the girls have shown fine sportsmanship and great spirit. Mary McMullen and Bette Ann Regan were elected co-captains of the Senior Varsity; Dorothy McTiernan was elected captain of the Junior Varsity. In the intra-class games the championship of the school will be decided. All the girls who have taken part in girls' sports during the past four years wish to thank Miss Hyde and Miss George for their encouragement and advice.

BETTE REGAN

Senior Girls' Basketball

This season a fine group of girls came out for the team. Because of this enthusiasm a complete team was formed. At the beginning of the year Mary McMullen was chosen as captain. This excellent team is looking forward to the class games with confidence and eagerness.

Football

First Row: R. Briand, F. McGrath, C. Fortman, J. Serino, J. Dooley, Capt.-T. Messuri, W. Troy, L. Clinton, J. Mullen, J. Hennessey, C. Kapsambelis.

Second Row: T. McCarron, D. Keefe, J. Demos, P. Budryk, E. Demont, C. Bush, F. Donahue, R. Cawley, P. Schaub, J. Kennedy.

Third Row: B. Herron, P. Walker, W. O'Brien, W. White, J. Linehan, L. Donavan, A. Kenny, W. Powers, R. Maciel.

This year's team had a rather poor season. We won only two games and lost six. The main cause of this record was the inexperience of the majority of the players (there were only five returning lettermen).

The team was built around the following players: Captain Tony Messuri, fullback; Billy Troy, quarterback; John Serino, guard; and next year's co-captain Eddie Moriarty, center. Mention should be made of the other outstanding players on the team. They were: ends, Ron Briand and John Dooley; tackles, Mike Fortman and Chris Kapsembelis; guards, Jack Hennessy. Other important members of the squad were Paul Walker, co-captain next season, Dick Cawley, Peter Budryk, Jim Cody. Bruce Herron, and John Tierney.

Hockey

First Row: Faculty Manager, Mr. Fraser, Manager, Serino, J., Corkery, T., Messuri, T., Captain Theall, J., Parks, L., Dooley, J., Briand, R.
Second Row: Culhane, P., Powers, J., Haley, T., McCarthy, W., McGinnity, R., Cronin, W., Kelly, P., Coach John Culhane.

This year's hockey team ended up with the best record since the championship team four years ago. We took fourth place in the tough G. B. I. league. Vastly improved by the play of a great goalie, Lee Parks, the team finished the season with a 5-4-1 record. Tim Corkery, Ronald Briand, Bill McCarthy, Bill Cronin, and Ed Moriarty all deserve credit for their fine play. Tony Messuri, John Theall, and Lee Parks all gained the distinction of being named on the G. B. I. All-Stars. "Scrapper" Dooley was chosen for the G. B. I. second team. The leading scorers were: John Theall, 14; Tony Messuri, 13; John Dooley, 10; Ron Briand, 2; Tim Corkery and Peter Culhane. We wish to thank our coach, Mr. Culhane, for his great leadership.

Basketball

The team had a fairly successful season this year. We beat several non-league teams in scrimmages and also won our share of league contests. Four of our losses were by three points or less. We have the consolation, however, of being the only team to outscore our rivals, league champion Rindge Tech, for three periods of a game.

The team consisted of: Phil Athanas, our high-scorer; Paul White, a good playmaker and scorer; Bob Brisbane, a good defensive player and set shot artist; Earl Dalrymple, high scoring pivot man; and Captain Paul Lyons, a good scorer and defensive player. Other active players were Whitfield Layne, Billy Troy, Joe Wheeler, Bob Hutchinson, Marv Grossman, and Jim Curcio. Two outstanding sophomores were Jeff Linehan and Jack Tierney.

Because we are the last team to play for Mr. Koslowsky, we sincerely thank him for coaching not only us but also many other C.H.L.S. teams.

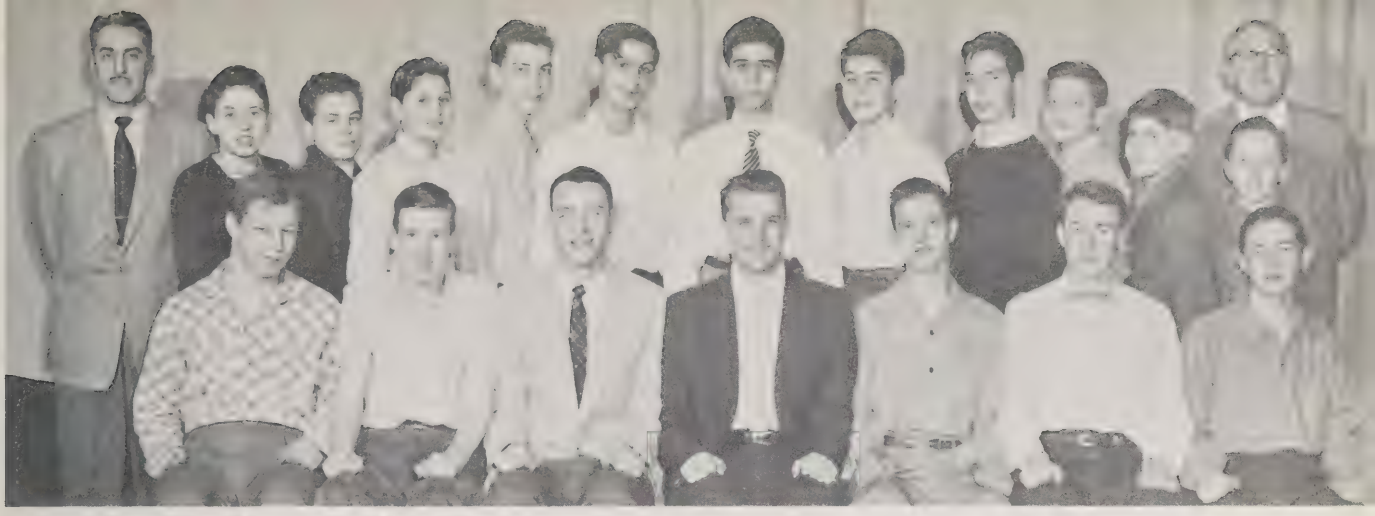
PAUL LYONS

Track

First Row: Birch, F., Ryan, J., McCarron, T., D'Arcy, K., Jacquith, L., Cawley, R., Fortman, C.
Second Row: Mr. Fraser, Pinsley, A., Schofield, R., Loges, C., Heaton, J., Powers, W., Colanino, J., Corcoran, R., Green, P., Mr. Murphy.
Third Row: Piccioci, J., Ianazzi, R., Jankowski, J., Steven, D., Demas, F., Higonnet, P., Murphy, F.

Again the track team was plagued by a paucity of material. There were only a few consistent scorers: Dick Cawley in the dash; Jack Ryan in the 300 yard run; Tom McCarron in the 600; Captain Ken D'Arcy in the 1000; Larry Jacquith in the mile; and Mike Fortman and Jack Jankowski in the shotput. Winning or taking second in nearly every event they entered, these few boys carried the team through the year. Although we did not win a duel meet all season, we took third place in our division of twelve schools at the State Meet in Boston Garden. The relay team of Cawley, Ryan, McCarron, and D'Arcy, was second in its heat at the Nationals in New York. Several boys, including the relay team, went to the Bowdoin meet in March. Other runners were high jump ace Pat Higonnet, Frank Birch, Fran Murphy, Bill Schofield, John Cochran, Fred Dema, Jim Cody, Arnold Pinsley, Paul Walker, and Carl Loges. All the runners and coach John "Fudge" Murphy are awaiting the outdoor season and a chance to improve the record.

KEN D'ARCY



First Row: Massiel, R., Linsey, D., Stevens, D., Fortman, C., Dockham, D., Birch, F., Mahoney, P.
Second Row: Mr. Cohen, Coach, Courtney, J., Givilio, R., Anastasi, R., Wheeler, P., Higgonet, P., Halberstadt, J.,.Coit, R., Cummings, W., Ryan, J., Mahoney, J., Mr. Ronan, Coach.

Golf

The Golf Team expects to have a very good season this year. The returning lettermen are senior Mike Fortman, Jim Curcio, Paul Mahoney, Yan Lindsay, Bob Massiel, and Larry Mullen. Our coach, Mr. Ronan, expects the most competition from Arlington High, last year's champs, and from Belmont.

JIM CURCIO

Tennis

Last year C.H.L.S. reentered the G.B.I. Tennis League after two years of independent play. The team fought hard and missed third place by one match. This year we still have three of last year's top four players, Captain Dave Dockham, Frank Birch, and Dave Stevens. We will also have the services of veterans Pat Higonnet, Jerry and Jon Halberstadt, and Bob Coit. The team will play under several great handicaps, however. We will have to play without a coach unless Mr. Cohan is provided with transportation for us. Also, the city's courts are in such poor condition that they are almost useless. We will do our best though.

DAVE DOCKHAM

Baseball

Our baseball team will be made up of a group of eager young players with great determination and enthusiasm. The team will be predominantly composed of seniors with a few juniors and sophomores. We will build around pitcher Ron McGinity, shortstop Tom Bergantino, and catcher Tony Messuri. Other players will be John Theall, Lee Parks, Ed Moriarty, Bill O'Brien, Tim Corkery, Jack Hennessey and Bernie Mahoney. Our faithful manager and veteran score-keeper Pete Culhane will again be on hand.

We think that the team will be a well-balanced one and hope that we can reward our coach, Jim Foley, with a really good record.

TOMMY BERGANTINO

Epilogue

As we leave school to embark upon the stormy seas of life, we can look back upon a past of happiness, and forward to a future of achievement. In the years to come we shall remember with pleasure the days, free from worry or anxiety, that we spent here. With excitement and exhilaration we shall recall the friends and experiences of the cheerful, fleeting days at C.H.L.S.
